

Internet Addiction, Social Media Addiction, Loneliness, Depression

You are invited to participate in a study on the relationship between internet usage, loneliness, and depression among adolescents in Bangladesh. Your participation will help us understand how internet habits may impact mental health.

* Indicates required question

1. You're invited to join a study about how internet use affects loneliness and depression in teens in Bangladesh. *
The survey takes 20-30 minutes. Participation is your choice, and you can stop anytime. Your answers are private and only for research. While there's no direct benefit, your help will improve understanding of teen mental health. If you have questions, contact us. By continuing, you agree to take part.
